WHAT, WHERE, AND WHEN IN OLD KENILWORTH HISTORIC WALKING TOUR VISITS OVER 30 SITES

On Saturday, May 30, nearly 60 people attended the Washington Avenue Historic Tour. Under the auspices of the Kenilworth 250th Committee and the Kenilworth Historical Society, the tour guide was Walter Boright, a Kenilworth native and historian. Over 30 historic sites along Washington Ave. and just off its side streets of N. 18th to N. 23rd streets were featured. Some of the stops included buildings dating to the 1890s when Kenilworth – then known as New Orange – was being transformed from all farms to the earliest houses being erected here. On 18th St. walkers visited the home hero police chief Alfred Vardalis and the site of early builder Antonio Tortora’s home. He built the first firehouse. They visited the site of an assassin’s house on N. 19th St. and the original rectory of St. Theresa’s Church.

On 20th St. they saw the homes of Sanderson Ruth, a leader in the struggle for Kenilworth’s independence, and of Anthony Grippio, a colorful mayor who helped survey Kenilworth from farmland to a gridiron of streets. Also on the street, they visited a home where Upsala students boarded in the attic, the site of Crescendo Hall (Upsala’s women’s dormitory), the Chas. Knudson house (he was a leader in the independence movement), and an unusual house where the bricks were installed sideways. On 21st St. attendees saw the home of early builder, early postmaster, and early mayor John Hiller – another advocate for Kenilworth independence. On N. 22nd St., a stop was made at a home visited by future president John F. Kennedy in July 1946. Dr. Boright detailed the story of the visit and whom Kennedy sought to see.

On Washington Ave. itself stops were made where St. Theresa’s original rectory first stood, the location of Hiller’s Pond and Hiller’s Store. Additional highlights included: St. Theresa’s original chapel (now a funeral home), three locations where whiskey raids were conducted during Prohibition, a number of pool halls, former grocery stores, an ice and coal dealer, some butcher shops, sites of three old time post offices (Hiller’s Store, the Kanane Building, and the still standing Ciravalo Building) were discussed. Reviewed were the sites of Kenilworth’s first and second firehouses. The “synagogue” house of David Stein was among the many stops.

The homes where three neighborhood boys who died because of war were on the route. They were Rudolph Haldin, WWI; George Cliff, WWII; and Walter Kelly, Korea.

The final stop as at what remains of the old Frost Farm on Cross St. The property dates to being a farm to as far back as to least the 1840s. In the 1940s-1980s in was host to The Kenilworth Greenhouses. A developer has held it since. The old farmhouse – believed to be the second oldest house still standing in Kenilworth dates to 1845 and possibly earlier.

Some of Kenilworth’s oldest, legacy families had descendants on the tour. They were here during the WWI period and some from New Orange Days. With roots here since 1899 were the Stein-Socofsky family. The Vitale family, here since 1901, was represented. Another with New Orange roots were Scheidegger descendants. A bit later the Scorese and Lumino families arrived and their heirs were present. Among dignitaries taking part were Borough council members Pat Boyle and Savino Scorese, and Shirley Maxwell, president of the Historical Society.

Research provided by Walter E. Boright, Ed. D., historian, and Historic Signs, Inc. Sources include: personal interviews, the Cranford Chronicle archives, Borough tax records, the Kenilworth Historical Society, and personal knowledge. Persons with inquiries about this or other Kenilworth history topics, may contact Dr. Boright at drbori@aol.com or 908-256-5200.

PASSING THE TORCH AT 250: HOW NORTH JERSEY'S NEWEST ENLISTEES CARRY AMERICA'S LEGACY FORWARD

*Martha Papson Garcia, Ed.D. (U.S. Army)
Director of Veterans Services, ROTC Liaison, Fairleigh Dickinson University*

Veteran organizations often serve as the backbone of community support for those who have served in the military. Yet, one group is uniquely transforming how America honors its newest service members—before they even don the uniform. While traditional groups like the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and the American Legion focus primarily on veterans returning from conflict, Our Community Salutes (OCS) dedicates its mission entirely to the next generation of patriots: high school seniors stepping into the U.S. Armed Forces.

As communities across the nation prepared for Fourth of July celebrations and looked forward to America's milestone 250th birthday, the work of Our Community Salutes of North Jersey stood as a powerful reminder of what local support truly meant.

Founded in 2009 by educator and Army veteran Dr. Kenneth Hartman, OCS was created to fill an important gap in community recognition. While college-bound seniors receive enthusiastic decision-day applause and student-athletes draw local headlines for signing with sports teams, military enlistees often quietly slip away to basic training without public acknowledgment. Our Community Salutes ensures these young men and women are the first to hear a collective "thank you" from their hometown.

The organization operates on a three-pronged support model. For enlistees, public recognition ceremonies provide resources, mentorship, and a sense of pride to ease their transition into active duty. For families, educational tools, community connections, and peer networks that help parents and siblings navigate the military journey. For communities, a collaborative platform uniting local business leaders, veterans, educators, and elected officials to honor local defenders.

Each spring, the North Jersey chapter of OCS brings this essential mission into focus. Recently, the group hosted its 10th Annual Enlistee Recognition Ceremony at Fairleigh Dickinson University's Florham Campus in Madison, New Jersey.

At this high-profile event, more than 90 high school seniors from across northern New Jersey were honored as they committed to enlist in the Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, or National Guard. Surrounded by active-duty military leaders, veterans, local dignitaries, and emotional families, these young patriots received a formal send-off recognizing their induction into the elite "less than 1% club" of Americans who wear the uniform. To further support families, OCS introduced programs like OCS Connect, designed specifically to build community for those at home during their loved ones' military journey.

As America approaches its Semiquincentennial—its 250th birthday—the thread connecting these North Jersey enlistees, today's veterans, and the original patriots of the Revolutionary War becomes profound. It is an unbroken chain of everyday citizens choosing extraordinary sacrifice.

In 1776, the Continental Army was built by farmers, blacksmiths, and tradesmen who swapped civilian tools for muskets to defend the ideal of freedom. Many marched through northern New Jersey, known as the "Crossroads of the Revolution," enduring hardships such as brutal winters in Morris and Bergen counties. Today's veterans have inherited the responsibility of maintaining peace through decades of global conflict. Now, these high school enlistees—stepping onto the same historic Jersey soil—carry forward that legacy by voluntarily safeguarding American liberty. Just as only about 3% of colonists fought for independence, today's service members represent a committed minority protecting the majority.

Many historical battles that were won long ago are celebrated on the Fourth of July. But organizations like Our Community Salutes remind us that freedom is an active, ongoing relay race. By honoring the new generation of military enlistees, OCS ensures that the legacy of American liberty remains vibrant.

The act of honoring veterans isn't just about looking back - it is an investment in the future of the nation. Through grassroots support and community recognition, these young patriots receive a powerful message: their sacrifice is valued, their service is celebrated, and their legacy is America's ongoing story.

43RD ANNUAL LAW ENFORCEMENT SPECIAL OLYMPICS TORCH RUN

Kenilworth Police Department

On June 5, 2026, members of the Kenilworth Police Department joined police officers and other community members from across the state to be Guardians of the Flame in the 43rd Annual Law Enforcement Torch Run to benefit Special Olympics of New Jersey. Over 3,000 Police Officers took to their local streets to raise funds and awareness for this incredible organization. They carry the "Flame of Hope" which officially leads into the Special Olympics Summer Games. This event helps raise awareness and funds to support year-round sports training and competition opportunities for thousands of athletes with intellectual disabilities throughout

New Jersey.

A special thank you to the students and staff of David Brearley Middle School for coming out to cheer on our officers and show their support for this incredible cause. Your enthusiasm helped make the day even more meaningful as we carried the Flame of Hope through our community.

ABOUT LAW ENFORCEMENT TORCH RUN®

The Law Enforcement Torch Run® (LETR), initiated in 1981 by Wichita Police Chief Richard LaMunyon, has grown into a worldwide movement. What began as a humble initiative has transformed into a global beacon of hope and unity, driven by the collective efforts of law enforcement volunteers. Known as Guardians of the Flame, these dedicated individuals join hands with Special Olympics athletes to champion the cause of acceptance and inclusion for individuals with intellectual disabilities. The essence of LETR lies in its community-centric approach. Law enforcement members from various levels, including federal, national, state, provincial, local, and even military sectors, come together to support this noble cause. Their collaboration extends beyond mere participation; it signifies a commitment to fostering a society where everyone, irrespective of their abilities, is embraced and celebrated.

C.A.R. PROJECT SUPPORTS EQUINE THERAPY FOR VETS

Submitted by Holly Dunbar

The Children of the American Revolution (C.A.R.) is the nation's oldest and largest nonpolitical patriotic youth organization. A new C.A.R. state project that will aid veterans has been announced. The goal of "Operation Horse" is to raise $2,000 during the next year to fund equine-assisted therapy for two N.J. veterans with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). The therapy is offered through the Man o' War Project of Columbia University Irving Medical Center.

The mission of the Man o' War Project is two-fold. Equine-assisted therapy is used to treat veterans with PTSD while medical staff evaluate the program to develop best practices for administering equine-assisted therapy. This research can have far-reaching benefits for treating veterans and all who suffer with PTSD.

C.A.R. membership is open to girls and boys from birth through age 21 who are descended from a person who aided the cause of independence during the American Revolution.

New Jersey has nine C.A.R. groups known as societies. Activities offered on an age-appropriate basis help members learn about American history, government, community service and more. Members also gain valuable leadership experience conducting meetings and serving as delegates at state and national conferences.

Pis-Cat-A-Qua Society C.A.R., hosted by the Elizabeth Snyder-Continental Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Green Brook, is seeking new members. For more information, contact ESCchapterDAR@gmail.com or visit nscar.org.
