WIND SYMPHONY CLEBRATES TOWNSHIP'S ANNIVERSARY

Hanover Wind Symphony

History came to life when the Hanover Wind Symphony (HWS) helped Hanover Township observe the 350th anniversary of Whippany's founding, along with the nation's 250th anniversary, with a rousing free concert, titled "Echoes of Liberty," on June 14 (Flag Day), at Memorial Junior School (MJS), in Whippany. The concert was sponsored by the Hanover Township Cultural Arts Committee, the Hanover Township Landmark Commission, the Hanover Heritage Association, and the Hanover Township Economic Development Advisory Committee.

4-H'ERS BRING ANIMALS TO WORK SESSION FOR A LIVELY SHOW AND TELL

County of Morris

A speckled white rabbit, a pair of chickens and two guinea pigs accompanied a half-dozen Morris County 4-H Club members to a recent Morris County Commissioners Work Session, where the youth shared their experiences in the 4-H program.

By all accounts, the animals stole the show, starting with 4-H Club member Khloe Terrazas lifting Luna the Lionhead rabbit out of her carrying case. After introductions, Khloe held the leash as Luna hopped around the room, delighting commissioners and greeting attendees gathered in the Knox Meeting Room.

The annual Morris County 4-H Fair, held in July, showcased the work, knowledge and skills developed by the county's 4-H youth members. The 2026 fair, held at High View Farms, featured animal displays, hands-on activities, entertainment and other traditional country fair attractions.

During the 2025-26 program year, more than 240 youth participated in 25 Morris County 4-H clubs, supported by more than 80 volunteers. In addition to clubs, the 4-H program offers multi-session events and stand-alone workshops that are open to all. Youth in kindergarten through one year out of high school are eligible to attend.

"Many people are familiar with 4-H's animal science and agriculture background but we also participate in many project areas such as STEM, creative arts, hobbies and more," said club member Raima Bera. "Through these clubs, members develop important life skills such as communication, leadership, teamwork and care for their communities."

4-H Clubs are free and open to youth in kindergarten through one year out of high school. The program is part of Rutgers Cooperative Extension, the university's outreach arm to the community and a collaboration with the New Jersey Department of Agriculture. The organization's goal is to help distinct populations statewide to adapt to a rapidly changing society, improve lives and nourish communities through educational programs that are based in science. Learn more about Morris County 4-H at morris4h.org/home.

COMMUNITY SUPPORTS VET'S NETWORK

County of Morris

More than 60 veterans, service providers and community organization representatives recently gathered at the Morris County Veterans Services Office in Morris Township for another successful New Jersey SOS Veterans Stakeholders meeting, focused on strengthening collaboration and support for the diverse needs of the veteran community.

The meeting brought together representatives from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, the New Jersey Department of Military and Veterans Affairs, the VA New Jersey Health Care System, the County College of Morris Veterans Resource Center and numerous veteran-focused organizations, including Atlantic Health System's True North Program, American Red Cross, Catholic Charities Diocese of Paterson, Community Hope, Fairleigh Dickinson University and Morris Habitat for Humanity. Local veterans' organizations, including Morris Plains VFW Post 3401, Randolph VFW Post 7333 and Welcome Home Vets of New Jersey, also participated.

NJ SOS Veterans Stakeholders Co-founder

Ariel "AJ" Luna, a U.S. Army veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom, announced that the "Remembering Our Fallen Moving Wall" exhibit will be to the County College of Morris Sept. 24-27, 2026. The exhibit, being displayed during the 25th anniversary of the start of the Global War on Terror, honors those who made the ultimate sacrifice while offering support to servicemembers suffering from the physical and emotional traumas brought about by the war.

The stakeholders meeting also featured updates from Christine Hellyer, director of the Morris County Office of Aging, Disabilities, and Community Programming, and Jessica Tomalo, program coordinator for the Office of Veterans Services, who highlighted ongoing efforts to expand outreach and awareness of available veteran services.

Assemblywoman Aura Dunn attended, thanking veterans for their service and recognizing the organizations that continue to support them. Representatives from the offices of U.S. Reps. Tom Kean, Jr., Analilia Mejia, and Sen. Andy Kim also participated.
