West Essex Regional School District

On a windy Thursday, June 18, 2026, we proudly celebrated and bid farewell to the West Essex High School Class of 2026! From heartfelt speeches to the turning of tassels, it was a memorable day filled with pride, excitement, and achievement.

Check out some highlights from the ceremony and relive the special moments. These photos include the excitement before the ceremony all the way to the celebratory caps-in-the-air moment!

A special thank you to Fine Arts teacher Mrs. Kelly Clark for capturing these wonderful photos!

The final week of school was all about celebrating this incredible senior class and recognizing their hard work, achievements, and lasting impact on West Essex.

Senior Sunrise kicked off the week on Monday as students gathered on the turf at 5:30 a.m. for breakfast, yearbook signings, and time with friends as the sun rose on their final days as Knights.

Senior BBQ followed on Tuesday after graduation rehearsal, with students enjoying a delicious meal prepared by our talented Culinary Arts instructors and students.

Caps & Coffee, a new tradition launched this year, brought seniors and their families together for breakfast, conversation, yearbook signings, and special memories.

During Caps & Coffee, students opened letters they had written to themselves back in middle school, a meaningful reminder of how far they have come. This is the first year we invited parents to join us, and we rebranded it to coffee and caps! It was so special. A fresh take on a beloved tradition. Thanks to the West Essex PTO for generously sponsoring this event!

BOCCE AND VOLLEYBALL CHAMPS CROWNED

Borough of Roseland
Roseland recently crowned the champions of both the Spring Bocce League and the Spring Volleyball Program.

The Big LeBocce, captained by Councilman Chris Bardi, captured the Roseland Recreation Spring Bocce League Championship defeating Good Fellas, captained by Mike Robertiello, in a highly competitive championship match to claim the title. Additionally, congratulations to Happy Hour on capturing the 2026 Roseland Recreation Adult Volleyball Championship.

Happy Hour defeated Spiked in an exciting championship match last night to earn this season's title. Congratulations to both teams on a great season!
